

Rocky Mountain Jewish
Historical Society

EVERYONE HAS A STORY WHAT'S YOURS?

EXPLORE YOUR ROOTS
AND WIN $250 IN THE PROCESS

Kohélet and the Rocky Mountain Jewish Historical Society at the University of Denver have partnered to sponsor an essay contest on a Jewish historical or fictional subject.

The contest had two divisions: high school and adult. Today we publish the best works in each category. The best essays in adult category are:

“Prepare To NOT Die, Jew!” – by Sarina Kopinsky

and

“Rio” - by Bennett Parnes

The high school category winner, Eliana Zeiger, will receive the $250 prize. Congratulations!!!

The prize award ceremony will be held at Kohélet on March 16, 1 pm.

You are cordially invited!

Please RSVP to davidson.misty@gmail.com and let us know:

- Do you plan to come to Kohélet
- Or
- Attend over Zoom

The Zoom link will be sent to you by email before March 16.

Here are the links to the best essays:

Everyone has a story – by Eliana Zeiger

<https://torahispower.org/content/kohélet/contest/2013-11-15-EveryoneHasAStoryEssay-by-ElianaZeiger.pdf?13>

Prepare To NOT Die, Jew! – by Sarina Kopinsky

<https://torahispower.org/content/kohélet/contest/2023-11-15-PrepareToNotDieJew-bySarinaKopinsky.pdf?13>

Rio - by Bennett Parnes

<https://torahispower.org/content/kohélet/contest/2024-02-15-RioByBennettParnes.pdf?13>